This is YOUR book.

Fairfax Hall has graduated many a senior in its day.
Without your help some might never have made it. With appreciation for your time and effort,

we dedicate the 1974 Chain and Anchors to you.

FOREWORD

“ . . . So there's alot of sense of livin'
When the world we know starts givin'
And we can spread our wings some sunny
Day, and fly away
But 'til we all fly together
What sense does it make?”

I, Lynn, leave to all my friends at Fairfax a new horizon and never-ending togetherness. To all the seniors I leave the hope for your happiness. Ginnie, I leave my love and thanks for a great senior year. Fairfax has given me my togetherness . . . and I got by with a little help from my friends.

Sally Nagle Breitung — Lynchburg, Virginia

Vespers Committee, 1; Athletic Association, 2,3,4; J.V. Hockey Team, 3; Varsity Hockey Team, 2,4; Manager, Tennis Team, 3; Business Staff, Hall Chatter, 2,3,4; Editorial Staff, Hall Chatter, 4; Spanish Club, 3,4; Vice President, Spanish Club, 4; Treasurer, Junior Class, 3; Vice President, Student Council, 4; May Day Pageant, 2; "Rec" Committee, 2,3,4; Confetti Editorial Staff, 4; Intramurals, 1,2,3,4; Staff, Chain and Anchors, 4; Dating Committee, 4.

"Selfishness, my brother, is the cause of blind superiority, and superiority creates clanship, and clanship creates authority which leads to discord and subjugation." — Kahlil Gibran

I, Sal, leave, leaving nothing as Fairfax has taken too much from me; to those who held on along side of me . . . fine times. Now, if I may be excused . . .

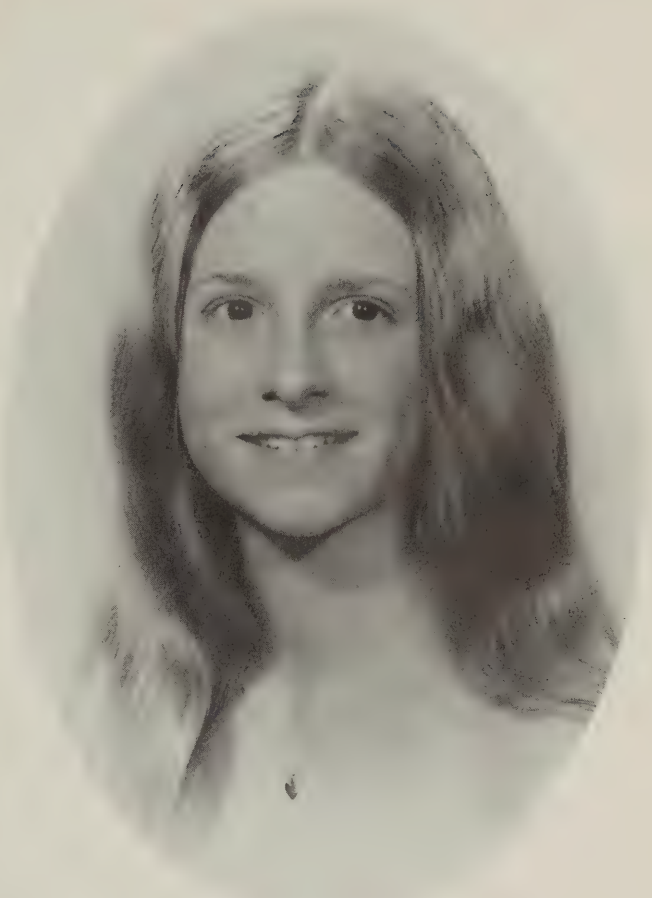

Mr. Albert F. Breitung — Sally Nagle Breitung

Mr. B.T. Brewer — Millie Brewer

Millicent Ruth Brewer — Loudon, Tennessee

"I've never felt so alive.
I'm learning
that there's such a world
out there ... and none of us
has ever seen or felt it.
Now we're free to go where we wish and to be what we are."
Jonathan Livingston Seagull
... but what then ...?

Mary Hunter Davis — Henderson, North Carolina

Every change brings a new day and a new opportunity. I thank Fairfax for making me realize that. Let your lives be filled with songs of tomorrow, paint your dreams, let your thoughts be filled with imagination, and let your dreams be the foundation of your mind's contentment (for now). I offer my thanks and songs to B.J. and "the 4." Thanks Julie and remember — "you're flying high" but . . .

I dare not think what might replace the shadows that I've had to learn to love, but I stand ready one more time to learn a new geography if that becomes a necessary thing to do. — Rod McKuen

Terry Ann Emory — Greeneville, Tennessee

French Club, 4; Orchesis, 4; Riding Club, 4; Hall Chatter, 4.

I ache to learn some new games now.
I've been away from home too long.
To see a new door open I'd go almost anywhere,
Even backward,
If I thought I had the time.

Mr. James A. Emory — Terry Ann Emory

"Now that I must go, now in the moment of parting,
Leaving a friend and a place,
How everything I have loved rises before me,
With anguish over all that I must leave."

— A Strindberg

Millie, Karen, Sue, and Leslie, you are the "friends."
Thank you. Julie, thanks. Katie, now it's your turn, be happy . . . I love you.

Meredith Claire Hull — Alexandria, Virginia

Choir, 3; Glee Club, 3; Intramurals, 3,4.

"A friend is a present you give to yourself. That's why I'm so lucky." Anonymous
To all my friends — thanks. You are the ones who helped make my two years ones to remember. To the Class of '75. Good Luck!

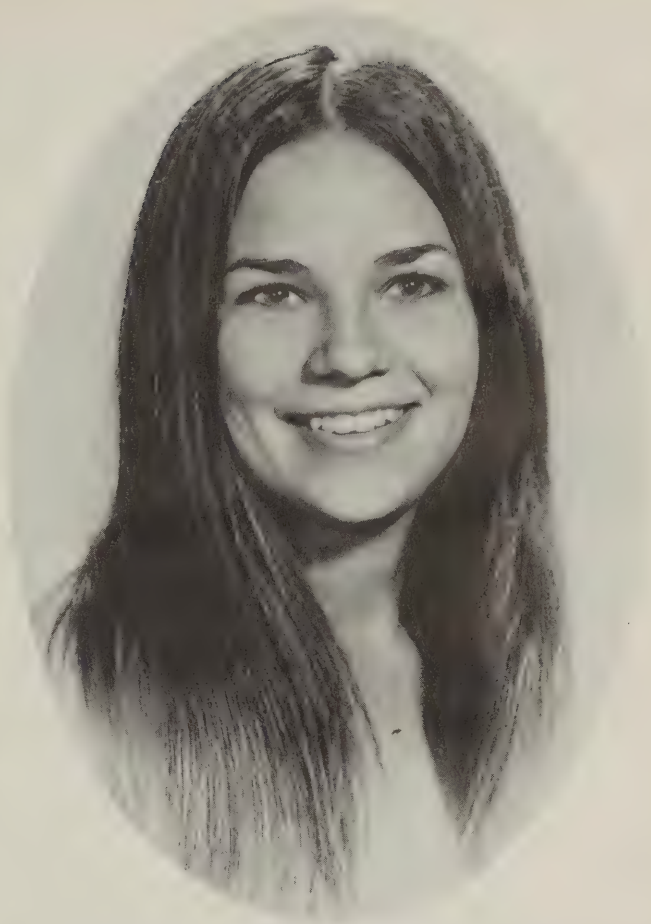

Mr. Robert F. Hull — Merrie Hull

Mr. Walter W. Hulmes — Sandy Hulmes

"For every star that falls to earth a new one glows
 For every dream that fades away a new one grows
 When things are not what they would seem you must keep following your dream
 So while my heart is still believing I'll say good-bye . . . — McKuen
 And it's the hardest thing under the sun above to say good-bye to the ones you love . . .
 Melanie

Elizabeth Ruth Jones — Clayton, Georgia

French Club, 4; Orchesis, 4; Intramural Representative, 4;
Hockey Team, 4.

Your absence has gone through me like thread through a needle
Everything I do is stitched with its color.

Mr. Carlton H. Jones, Jr. — Libby Jones

Mr. John Cyrus Kirkpatrick — Robin Kirkpatrick

Roberta Gould Kirkpatrick — Petersburg, Virginia

To "the four."

You have touched on my heart, and I offer these words:

"The times, oh we had some times

when the world was the color of neon signs . . .

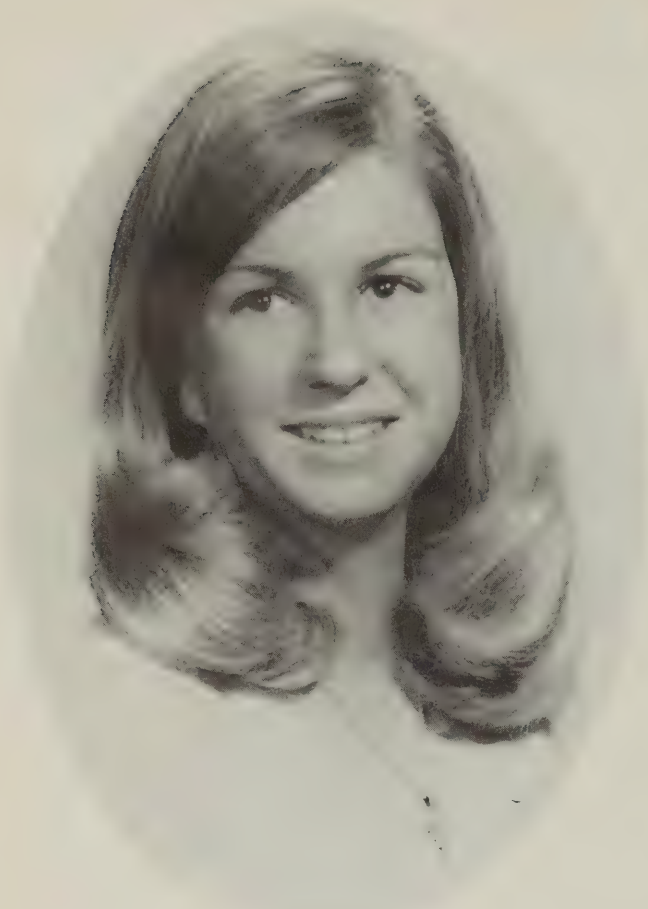

All of us together would raise our glasses high and drink a toast to times gone by.

But that was when we didn't know our youth was passing by.

Now all we have to think about are times gone by."

— Rod McKuen

S.H., When you're weary, feeling small, . . . and friends just can't be found . . . like a bridge over troubled water I will ease your mind. H.D., how long the road will be when you fade away. Daisies, gold bands, and dreams of a Colorado Rocky Mountain high . . . we're part of us.

"Pass it 'round one more time
I think I'll have a swallow of wine
Life is fine
Even with the ups and downs
And you should have a sip of it
Else you'll find
It's passed you by . . .

— David Crosby

Merrill Susan McManus — Greensboro, North Carolina

I, Merrill, leave Fairfax Hall after two long years. I first want to thank Robin for a great junior year. It was fun, and we still have many memories left. To Ann a fantastic Ring Figure — I know how long you have waited. To Kate, I leave the "South" and many rides home. To Sal, I will leave a filet mignon. To Julie, a good senior year. To all Student Council members, thanks for caring. Good Luck to All!

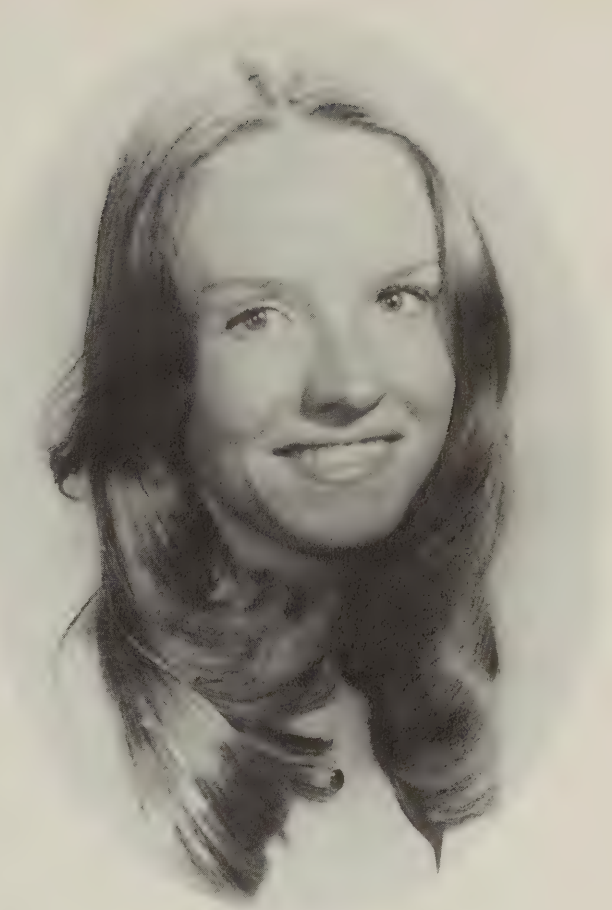

Mr. John P. McManus — Merrill McManus

Col. Randolph Millholland — Ginnie Millholland

Virginia Randolph Millholland — Cumberland, Maryland

Glee Club, 3; Choir, 3; Riding Club, 3,4; Intramurals, 3; French Club, 4; Spring Horse Show, 3; Fall Horse Show, 4.

Two good years have gone by. There have been good times and others too. A lot of friends have been made; it is hard to believe that I never would have met these friends without coming here. Lynn, thanks for everything. Good-bye.

Christy Anne Murrian — Decatur, Illinois

Glee Club, 1,2; Vespers Committee, 1; Dating Committee, 1; Riding Club, 1; French Club, 1,2,4; Intramurals, 1,2,4; Hostel Committee, 4; Ring figure Page, 1; Hall Chatter Business Staff, 4; Pep Club, 4; Secretary of Senior Class, 4; Editorial Staff, Confetti, 4; Fall Horse Show Technical Staff, 4.

I wish to leave with only a few words; first to thank my class for accepting me back, and to quote a poem that will express my feelings to the people who really know me:

One day I'll follow the birds disappearing into the rain going in a hurry
Glad to be in flight again
but not sure where I'm going.
There are wounds I never speak about.
Some things that words have done to me that none will ever know.

But one day soon
I'll disappear into the rain. — Rod McKuen

Mr. Tom O. Stephens — Christy Murrian

Mr. Robert C. Oliphant — Mary Oliphant

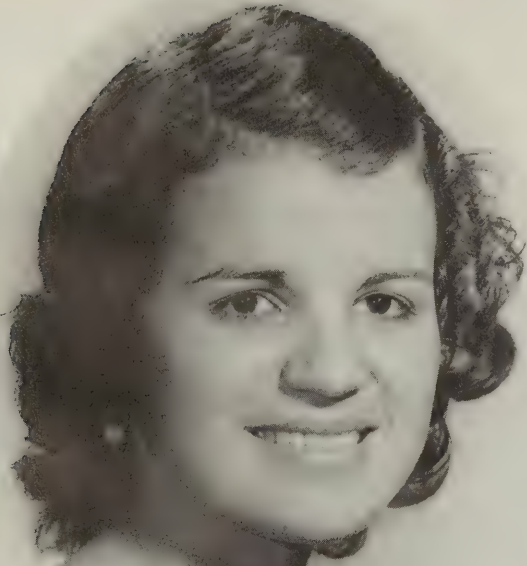

Mary Trundle Oliphant — Washington, D.C.

I, Mary, leave Fairfax Hall happily yet sadly. I had a best friend last year which I am very thankful for. All of you here at Fairfax, the faculty as well as the student body, have taught me something in my past four years. I must not forget to thank especially Mrs. J. Scott Coyner for her time and patience and for our good talks. I'll never forget them. I will profit greatly from these teachings as I continue my journey through life. I thank each one of you, my friends, for what you have taught me. Take care and God bless you all.

Monica Perez — Maracaibo, Venezuela

Spanish Club Secretary, 4; Hockey Team, 4; Orchesis, 4.

We never have to think that the opinions of the other people are not true, because maybe ours are the mistaken ones. If everyone felt this way, the world would be better.

Mr. K.A. Schubert — Monica Perez

Mr. W.T. Russ — Lisa Russ

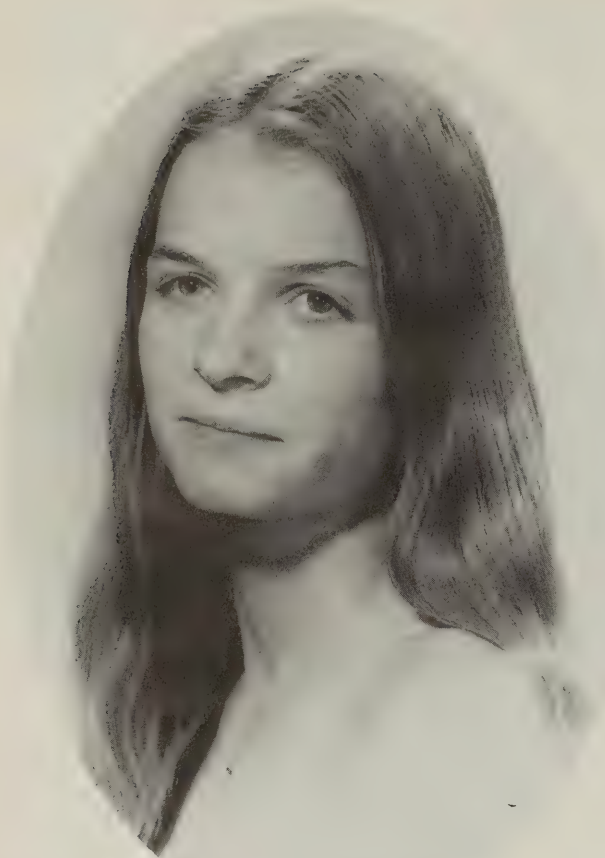

Lisa Palmer Russ — Shallotte, North Carolina

"Habit is man's best friend or his worst enemy. The load of tomorrow added to that of yesterday, carried today, makes the strongest falter." — Jo Petty

I, Lisa, leave, knowing that "I may never pass this way again." I leave, taking the knowledge that I have gained at Fairfax, not in books. I leave to Durene my love and close friendship. To the rising senior class I leave a great year.

Debbie Katherine Saunders — Roanoke, Virginia

Riding Club, 4; Intramurals, 4.

I do not know where I have strayed to find this place; Or how it is that I have stayed . . . — Evelyn Barkins
To my friends I leave happiness; to the class of '75 good luck!

Thoreau

It's time to stretch my legs. My time . . . to let the aimless breezes guide me down moonlit strands, past ice-blue tides and ivory shells. Through the diamond Mist, I turn and wave. With a knapsack of memories and a star in my pocket, I'll dance by the edge of the sea. My time to wander . . . dropping bread crumbs all the way.

I, LeAnn, leave with many great memories of Fairfax and hope the underclassmen will enjoy the good times they have here. I know there are many roads and highways somewhere that I haven't found and explored and I leave now to find them. Someday, "we must gather all our courage and sail our ships out upon the open seas." . . . Good-bye all . . .

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

1970-71

Mel came in a dirty mick, stayed that way, and left with her Dukes up.

Hunter came in with the seniors, stayed at the barn, and left a Dodge.

LeAnn came in, lived in an adobe, and rode out on Page.

Millie strutted in on bird legs, and left on her own two feet.

Mary came in with a strong will, and left contented.

Sally came in on tubas, sounded her horn, and left a slob.

Christy came in a lamb, and left a lion.

Leslie came in with determination, left for a vacation, returned with left-over sun-tan lotion, and left once more.

Robin came in bringing a smile and left with memories of the "group."

1971-72

Sandy flew in on a Ronald McDonald hamburger and pooped out.

B.J. came in with dreams, made a great stand, and left loving and being loved.

Lisa came in a Ford and left a Forbis.

Sue came in meekly, stayed and did her share, left with new ambitions.

1972-73

Lynn came in knowing what was in store, did her job, and left for other adventures.

Janie came in with Joey, got tired, and left with Butch.

Carrie popped in, opened the door, looked in, popped out.

Martha came in a preppie, and left with college experience.

Carol came in loving Mexico and left loving Louisiana.

Ginnie came in on toothpicks and ran out answering doorbells.

Merrill came in a Saint and left a Warrior.

Karen came in a West Virginia hick and left an experienced southern belle.

Robin W. came in with Welshman, sold him, and left wanting him back.

Debbie S. crept in like a mouse, let them know she was around, and left with memories and with pleasure.

1973-74

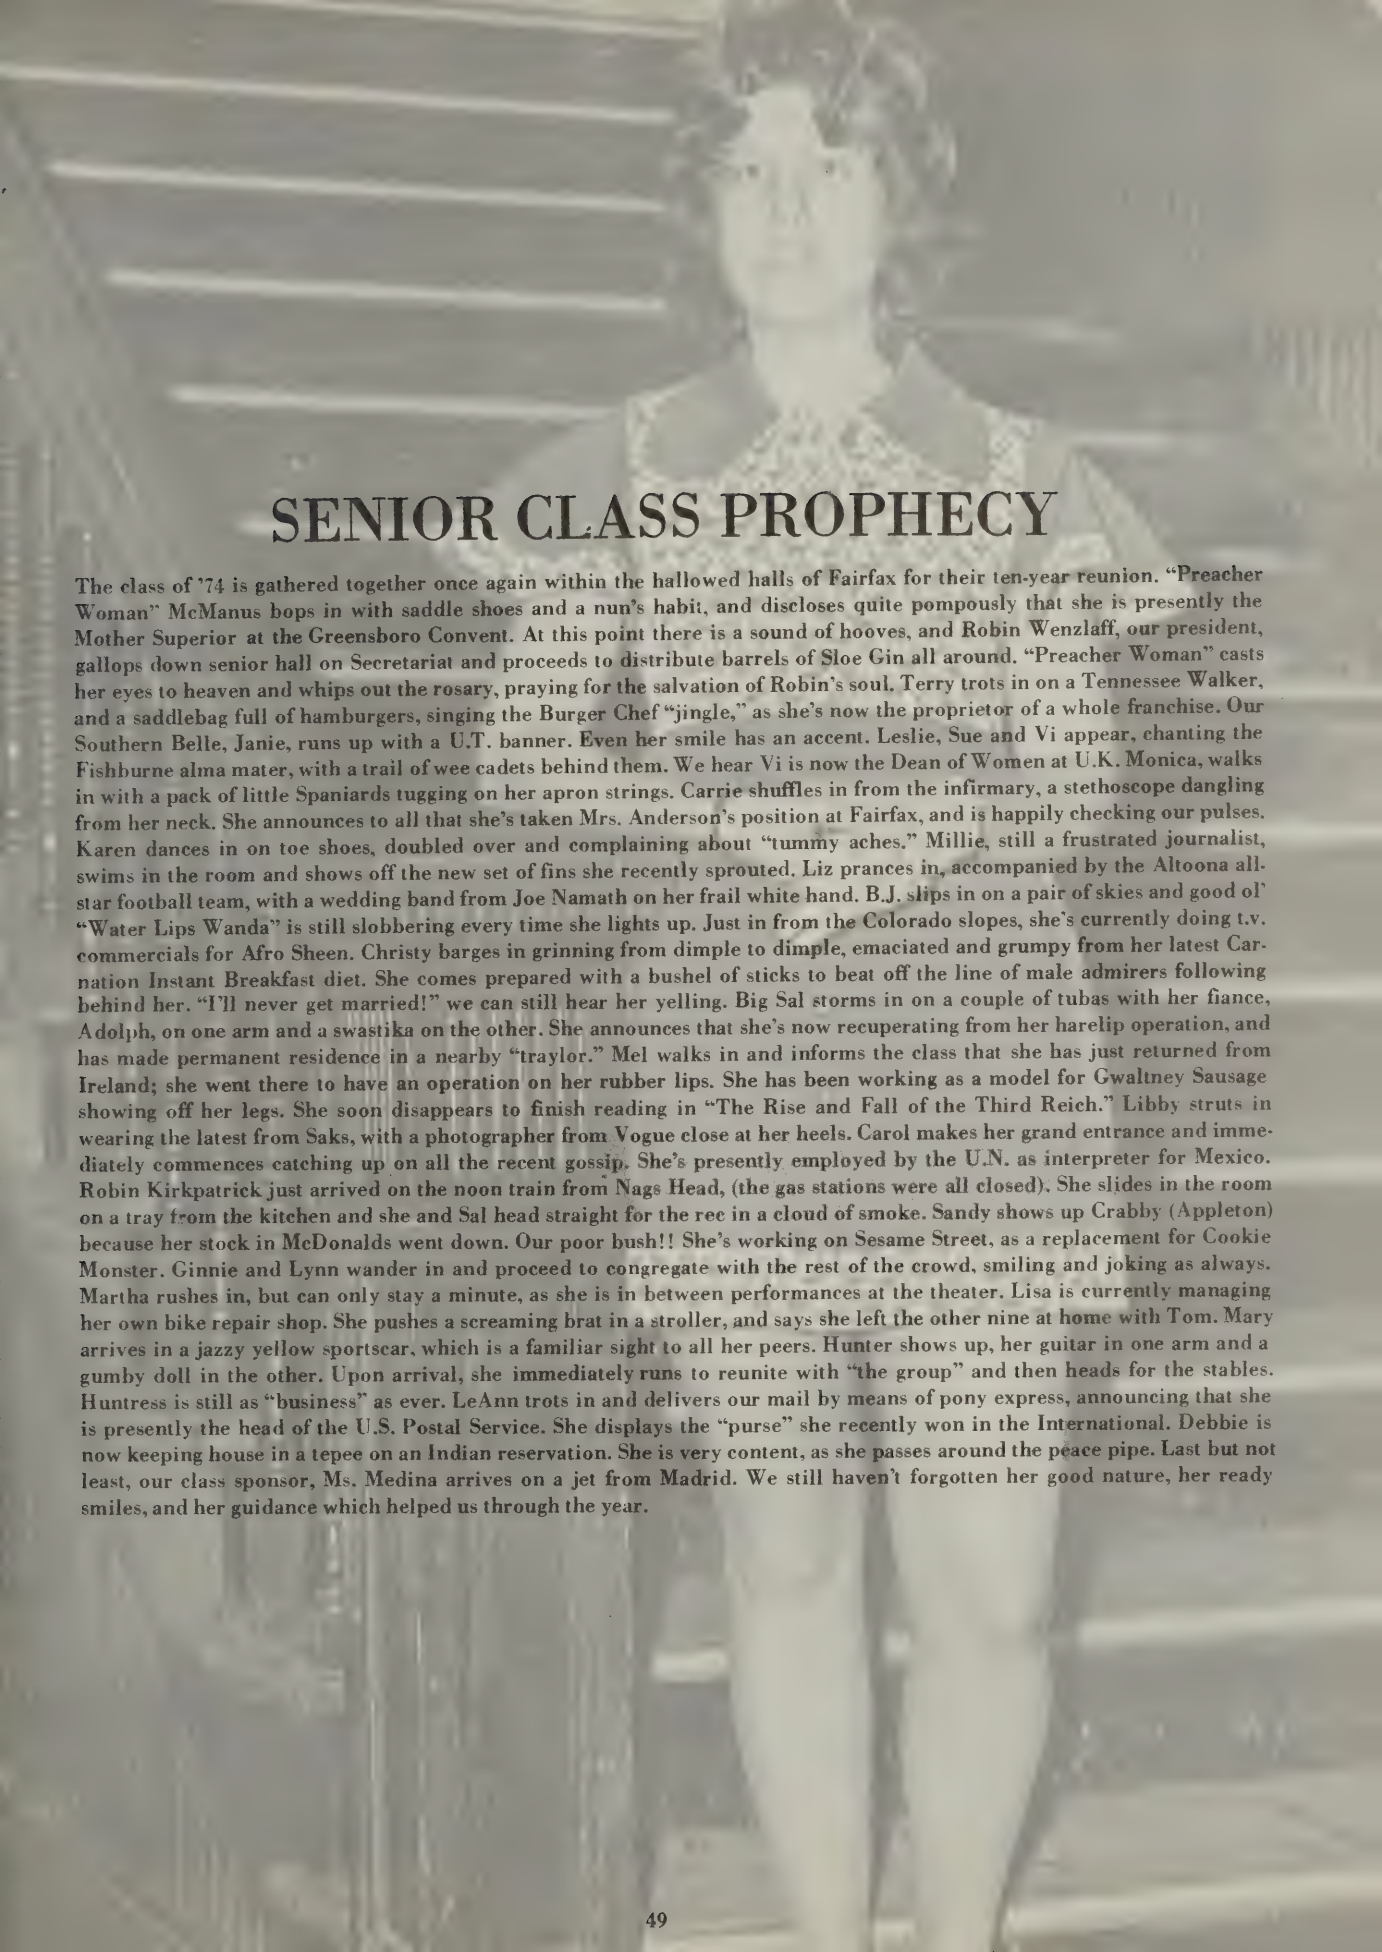

Liz came in a sheet and left a blanket of love.

Monica came in speaking Spanish and left mumbling English.

Terry wandered in looking amazed and left being loved by friends.

Libby came in a Vogue and left a model.

Vi tiptoed in like a kitten and left loving fish.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

The class of '74 is gathered together once again within the hallowed halls of Fairfax for their ten-year reunion. "Preacher Woman" McManus bops in with saddle shoes and a nun's habit, and discloses quite pompously that she is presently the Mother Superior at the Greensboro Convent. At this point there is a sound of hooves, and Robin Wenzlaff, our president, gallops down senior hall on Secretariat and proceeds to distribute barrels of Sloe Gin all around. "Preacher Woman" casts her eyes to heaven and whips out the rosary, praying for the salvation of Robin's soul. Terry trots in on a Tennessee Walker, and a saddlebag full of hamburgers, singing the Burger Chef "jingle," as she's now the proprietor of a whole franchise. Our Southern Belle, Janie, runs up with a U.T. banner. Even her smile has an accent. Leslie, Sue and Vi appear, chanting the Fishburne alma mater, with a trail of wee cadets behind them. We hear Vi is now the Dean of Women at U.K. Monica, walks in with a pack of little Spaniards tugging on her apron strings. Carrie shuffles in from the infirmary, a stethoscope dangling from her neck. She announces to all that she's taken Mrs. Anderson's position at Fairfax, and is happily checking our pulses. Karen dances in on toe shoes, doubled over and complaining about "tummy aches." Millie, still a frustrated journalist, swims in the room and shows off the new set of fins she recently sprouted. Liz prances in, accompanied by the Altoona all-star football team, with a wedding band from Joe Namath on her frail white hand. B.J. slips in on a pair of skies and good ol' "Water Lips Wanda" is still slobbering every time she lights up. Just in from the Colorado slopes, she's currently doing t.v. commercials for Afro Sheen. Christy barges in grinning from dimple to dimple, emaciated and grumpy from her latest Carnation Instant Breakfast diet. She comes prepared with a bushel of sticks to beat off the line of male admirers following behind her. "I'll never get married!" we can still hear her yelling. Big Sal storms in on a couple of tubas with her fiancé, Adolph, on one arm and a swastika on the other. She announces that she's now recuperating from her harelip operation, and has made permanent residence in a nearby "traylor." Mel walks in and informs the class that she has just returned from Ireland; she went there to have an operation on her rubber lips. She has been working as a model for Gwaltney Sausage showing off her legs. She soon disappears to finish reading in "The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich." Libby struts in wearing the latest from Saks, with a photographer from Vogue close at her heels. Carol makes her grand entrance and immediately commences catching up on all the recent gossip. She's presently employed by the U.N. as interpreter for Mexico. Robin Kirkpatrick just arrived on the noon train from Nags Head, (the gas stations were all closed). She slides in the room on a tray from the kitchen and she and Sal head straight for the rec in a cloud of smoke. Sandy shows up Crabby (Appleton) because her stock in McDonalds went down. Our poor bush!! She's working on Sesame Street, as a replacement for Cookie Monster. Ginnie and Lynn wander in and proceed to congregate with the rest of the crowd, smiling and joking as always. Martha rushes in, but can only stay a minute, as she is in between performances at the theater. Lisa is currently managing her own bike repair shop. She pushes a screaming brat in a stroller, and says she left the other nine at home with Tom. Mary arrives in a jazzy yellow sportscar, which is a familiar sight to all her peers. Hunter shows up, her guitar in one arm and a gummy doll in the other. Upon arrival, she immediately runs to reunite with "the group" and then heads for the stables. Huntress is still as "business" as ever. LeAnn trots in and delivers our mail by means of pony express, announcing that she is presently the head of the U.S. Postal Service. She displays the "purse" she recently won in the International. Debbie is now keeping house in a tepee on an Indian reservation. She is very content, as she passes around the peace pipe. Last but not least, our class sponsor, Ms. Medina arrives on a jet from Madrid. We still haven't forgotten her good nature, her ready smiles, and her guidance which helped us through the year.

Remember those evenings at Western State Hospital or Woodrow Wilson Rehabilitation Center, stuffing envelopes for American Cancer Society, or wrapping Christmas presents for welfare children, playing with the deaf children at the Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind, visiting with some of our elderly neighbors, helping with Brownies, and collecting newspapers, as a part of the life of Fairfax Hall in 1973-74. Our efforts received a real boost from Mrs. Bruning, Miss Lake, Miss Medina, and many other faculty and staff members.

Our F&M bankers went to school, too.

So besides our regular checking, savings, loans and such, we're well attuned to special student needs.

Like parent/student joint checking or savings, education loans and the like.

At F&M we have a special interest in students. Because a lot of them turn out to be our best customers.

And some turn out to be our best bankers, too. First & Merchants National Bank.

The American forest still belongs to the American people.

And to a lot of people.

To begin with, four million individual Americans own 39% of the entire forest—a forest that's still three-fourths as large as it was when Columbus landed.

Then, too, everybody shares ownership in that 19% of the forest owned by federal and state governments which supplies so much of the raw material for building our houses and cities and making our paper products.

And when you add the 16 million acres of forestland that's been set aside for parks and wilderness areas, and the land not suitable for growing commercial trees, the American people—individually or collectively—own 91% of America's 761 million acres of forest.

So if the forest industries seem to own more than their 9%, it's probably because with responsible, scientific management they've been able to make this 9% produce one-third of all the raw material we need for today's wood and paper products, and still keep America green—and growing.

I hope today will be lighter highway
For friends are found on every road
Can you ever think of any better way
For the last and weary traveler to go?
Making friends for the world to see
Let the people know you got what you need
With a friend at hand you will see the light
If your friends are there
Then everything's alright

Life so they say is but a game and they let it slip away
Love — like the Autumn sun
Should be dying but its only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're going-
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go
And take us up always up
We may never pass this way again
Dreams — so they say
Are for the fools and they let them drift away
Peace — like the silent dove
Should be flyin' but is only just begun
Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage
Sail our ships out on the open sea
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
And take us up — Always up
We may never pass this way again
Good-bye.

— The Class of '74

we may never pass
